'And Caesar crossed the Tulpehocken.' This means we have arrived in the vicinity of my great grandfather's grave. Upon such occasions we feel impressed as when we stood face to face with Washington's uniform at the Smithsonian Institute, and the many other relics, and when standing upon the identical spot where he stood in the Senate Chamber at Annapolis, when resigning his commission to the first governor of Maryland; also the many objects of interest enshrined in the Independence Hall at Philadelphia. All these things have we seen, but the final resting place of the progenitor of the Lichty family remains wrapt in obscurity. Since our last report in Stark Co., Ohio, we have seen many objects of interest.

In Pittsburg we were entertained very pleasantly by our young cousin, Jacob Miller, a prominent limb of the law, and passing through Harper's Ferry, we stole a hasty glance at the ground which marks the spot upon which John Brown played the most remarkable drama of the rebellion. And as the government barracks are a mere matter of history now, two lone relics remain to immortalize the unfortunate hero's name: only an old dilapidated cart, and a rusty cannon, both suggestive of the old veteran's sad ending. The next two weeks were spent like a criminal 'doing time' among the hills and phosphate odor of Monrovia. The only thing that somewhat relieved the monotony of the occasion was our participation at a district meeting at Frederick where we were moved to blow our little bugle in the interest of the missionary cause, which, however, was of short duration. Killed as usual by financial starvation and smothered by lumbering machinery. Just think, five members to constitute the Mission Board; one member from each of five congregations, and these necessarily reside fifteen or twenty miles apart, and all these have to be consulted before a call for missionary labor can be attended to. Another killing clause is this: Any evangelist being ordered by this Board to attend to a call, has to respond promptly or he gets a man in his place. The worst of all is that each member be required to pay

After a very busy and interesting visit to Washington city and Baltimore, a boat-ride to Annapolis, for several days we were the guests of Henry Lichty and Dr. Norman Saylor, Phil. After we had seen the elephant and several sea-lions and the monkeys, we shaded ourselves under the Green tree, of Green Tree church notoriety. The 'Green Tree' is also a matter of history. Only the stump remains. Unlike the stump in Daniel's dream, this one will never revive or resurrect, save the chip we carry in our pocket as a memento, and will exhibit it to the friends we left behind on our way. While here we shed a tear over the graves of our beloved brother and sister Emanuel Meyers and wife. We also plucked a sprig of evergreen from the grave of father Isaac Price, and a wild rose from Jno. Umstead's. While here, we were the happy guests of Bro. T. J. Meyers and Sister Meyers. While here we had much spiritual enjoyment, and visited several days with the Fitzwater's, the Castleberry's and Harley's. Here we found Bro. E. A. Orr and wife, who are both sharpening their quills for the lecture field. While here I had frequent occasion to bear testimony to the cause of Prohibition, and I am proud of it, and am not ashamed to magnify my citizenship. Kansas carries the ribbon, and I will do what I can to further the cause while here in my native state, but I am afraid of the result when I see the numerous smoke-stacks in these manufacturing and mining cities.

We are now the guests of our indefatigable friend, Wm. Riest, and expect to get our mail at Berlin, Pa., after the 20th of May.

D. A. LICHTY.

When we are filled with heavenly love, and only then, are we most fitted to bear with human infirmity, to live above it and forget its burden.

'Bright's Disease has no symptoms of its own,' says Dr. Roberts, of the University of New York City. Additional proof why Warner's Safe Cure cures so many disorders which are only symptoms of kidney disease.

Newspaper Criticism.

It is a privilege every newspaper reserves to itself to criticize, adversely if needs be, for the public's benefit, anything in which the public is deeply interested.

It is the custom of H. H. Warner & Co., proprietors of the renowned Kidney and Liver Cure, better known as 'Warner's Safe Cure,' to flood the country, and especially the post-offices, with medical pamphlets. The writer has taken the liberty to examine one of these marvellous little books, and finds food for criticism, but before indulging in it, will give our readers some quotations therefrom, from the highest medical authorities, which we believe worthy of consideration. Under the head of 'No Distinctive Symptoms Apparent,' we find:

First—More adults are carried off in this country by chronic kidney disease than by any other one malady except consumption. —Thompson.

Second—Deaths from such diseases are increasing at the rate of 250 per cent a decade. —Edwards.

Third—Bright's Disease has no symptoms of its own, and may long exist without the knowledge of the patient or practitioner, as no pain will be felt in the kidneys or their vicinity. —Roberts.

Fourth—In the fatal cases—and most cases have hitherto been fatal—the symptoms of diseased kidneys will first appear in extremely different organs of the body as stated above. —Thompson.

Fifth—Only when the disease has reached its final and fatal stages may the usual symptoms of albumen and tube casts appear in the water, and will great pain rack the diseased organs. —Thompson.

Sixth—Bright's Disease, which usually has three stages of development, is a universal disease in England and America. —Roberts and Edwards.

Thompson is authority for saying that more adults are carried off in this country by kidney disease than any other malady except consumption. Under Warner's 'Safe Cure' article on Consumption, we find a paragraph claiming to be a quotation from a publication issued by Brompton Hospital for Consumptives, London, England, which states that 52 per cent. of the patients of that institution have unsuspected kidney disorder. Dr. Herman Brehmer, an eminent German authority also says that Consumption is always due to deficient nutrition of the lungs, because of bad blood.

Medical science can no longer dispute the fact that the kidneys are the principal blood purifying organs of the human system, and if they are diseased and thus fail to expel the uric acid poison or the waste matter of the blood, as the blood passes through these two great organs, the 'Safe Cure' claim is correct, and the reasoning of its proprietor holds good.

There is no doubt but that in too many instances the medical fraternity doctor for symptoms, instead of striking at the root of the disease, and that under this form of treatment many patients die.

We cannot, however, see the necessity of continually flooding the country with these advertising medical books, when their story once well told is enough for the time being. People as a rule, now-a-days, go to their newspaper for information, and we believe such truths as we have instanced could be proclaimed therein more advantageously to the public and much more beneficially to the proprietors.

R. A. Gunn, M. D., Dean and Professor of Surgery, of the United States Medical College; Editor of 'Medical Tribune,' Author of Gunn's New and Improved Hand-book of Hygiene and Domestic Medicine, referring to Warner's Safe Cure, said, 'I find that in Bright's disease it seems to act as a solvent of albumen; to soothe and heal the inflamed membranes, and wash out epithelial debris which blocks up the tubuli uriniferi (urine bearing tubes); and to prevent the destructive meamorpoeosis of tissue . . . I am willing to acknowledge and commend thus frankly the value of Warner's Safe Cure.'

There is many a thing which the world calls disappointment, but there is no such word in the dictionary of faith. What to others are disappointments are intentions of the way of God.

All Ladies

Will appreciate the liberal offer made in another part of this paper by Dr. Scott, New York City, in order that he may quickly introduce into every neighborhood his new and beautiful Electric 'High Hip' Corset. These Corsets are a new invention, combining quality of material and finished with French style. A dressmaker can make a lady's dress fit perfectly who wears this Corset. The Doctor offers a very handsome little Curlier to any one who names this paper and buys his excellent Satteen Corset. For full details, see advertisement headed 'Dr. Scott's Hair Curlier Given Away.'

'No disease among my chickens, finest of plumage, plenty of eggs, with less food, is what Mr. W. B. Smith, Business Manager of the Glasgow (Ky.) Times, says since using Ganter's magic chicken cholera cure for three years.

Cholera Cure!

Thousands of dollars worth of chickens are destroyed by Cholera every year. It is more fatal to them than all other diseases combined. But the discovery of a liquid remedy that positively destroys the Microbes has been made. Half of the young chickens are killed by Microbes before they are fryers. A 50-cent bottle is enough for 100 chickens. It is guaranteed. If, after using two-thirds of a bottle you are not satisfied with it as a cure for Cholera, return it to the druggist from whom you purchased it, and he will refund your money.

THE EVANGELIST will be sent to any address till Jan. 1st, 1890, for 75 cents. Make up a club in your church at once.

Purify Your Thoughts.

A noble career depends on the treatment given to the infant ideas that are born in the soul. A person is known by the company he keeps. So the thoughts we harbor within us and which go out through the doors of our mouths and our hands, determine our real character.

One of the highest of spiritual luxuries is the enjoyment of pure exhilarating and sublime thoughts; to such a devout and cheerful thinker a prison may be a palace. 'I thought of Jesus, said holy Rutherford, 'until every stone in the walls of my cell shone like a ruby.'—DR. T. L. CUYLER.

I find time to visit the sick and the poor; and I must do it if I believe the Bible, if I believe the marks whereby the Shepherd of Israel will know and judge His sheep at the great day.—JOHN WESLEY.

DR. SCOTT'S HAIR CURLER GIVEN AWAY.

At the urgent solicitations of many of our patrons and agents, we have just produced this new and beautiful Electric "High Hip" Corset. To quickly introduce it to readers of this paper, The Fall Mail Electric Association of London and New York, make the following offer for 30 days: If you cannot get it at your nearest store, remit at once the price, $1.25, with 10c. added for postage and packing. We will then send you (name) with the Corset, one of Dr. Scott's Electric Hair Curlers, retailing at 50c., and "The Doctor's Story," an invaluable book (price, 25c.). It is an improvement over any other "High Hip" Corset ever made, both in elegance of shape and quality of material and finish. In shape it is French, in quality and finish it excels the English styles. United with all this they possess the marvelous virtues of Electro-Magnetism peculiar to all of Dr. Scott's Electric Corsets. Therefore with this combination of excellencies they are unrivaled. Avail yourself of this offer NOW.

It is made of fine Alexandria cloth in Dove and White in sizes 18 to 30 inches. It is an unusually strong and durable article, and a perfect fit. It possesses strong Electro-Magnetic curative qualities and as such is cheap at $1.25. We invite you to make a test of these wonderful Corsets.

The cut below illustrates Dr. Scott's Electric Curlier. It is remarkably popular with Ladies and Gentlemen. By its aid the hair or beard can be curled in any desired style in from one to two minutes. It produces the "Langtry Style," the "Patti Bang," the "Gibson Wave Curl," and any other form desired by ladies wearing their hair in the fashionable "Gloss and Suffy" mode. Those who wear crimps or other forms of false hair will find this Electric Curlier a very useful article. It does not break off and ruin the hair like the ordinary crimping process, and in wet or hot weather it works as quickly as in cold.

PRICE 50 CENTS.

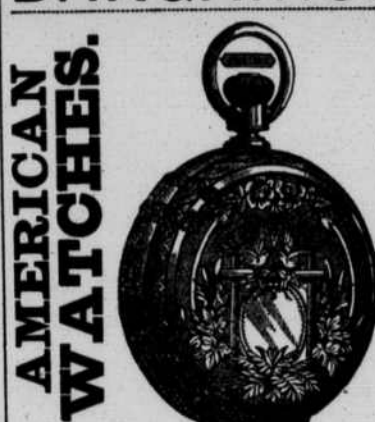

1-10 the Size.

Dr. Scott, New York—Your "Crimper and Curlier" works charmingly. Its effect causes universal admiration. They are most simple to use. I consider them worth a guinea apiece to those who devote much attention to the ever-changing arrangement of the hair.
